It's that time of year again when the Nelson Beer Fete moves outside for its summer quarterly event. Saturday Dec 5th is the date, 5pm-10.30pm the time and Founders Park the venue for the eighth beer fete organised by Dead Good Beer Events.

The beer tasting bonanza features craft beers from local and national breweries, a cider bar with 5 different ciders, 5 gourmet food stalls, music from the Nelson Ukelele Orchestra and the Fresh Choice Hot Vinyl Boys and last but not least opportunities to play the ancient game of Kubb.

BEERS

Features local breweries include Founders, Lighthouse, Townshend's, Mussel Inn, Moa, Monkey Wizard and Totara. National breweries supplying beer include Croucher's (Rotorua), Emerson's (Dunedin), Three Boys (Christchurch) and Invercargill Brewery. Plus making their Nelson debuts are brews from Arrow Brewery in Arrowtown and Wanaka Beerworks.

CIDERS

As well as beers, the summer beer fete will have a separate Cider Bar featuring ciders from Pomona, Redwood Boysencider, McCashin's Rochdale ginger and lime cider, Bengier Wild Cider and Nally's cider from Invercargill. Plus McCashin's will be promoting their range of 'Frute' flavoured cider drinks.

FOOD

There will be more food on offer than usual – cuisine on offer will include Jamaican Jerk Pork/Chicken, L'Artisan pizzas & pasties, Papamac baked potatoes, Thai food and Gourmet wraps/kebabs.

FUN

Music will be supplied by the Fresh Choice Old Vinyl Boys and the Nelson Ukelele Orchestra featuring Dean Straker, Pete Rainey, Jane Fisher and Katrina Smith. Plus you can play Kubb on the village green!
